RMAC Women's Golf Notes

Adams State - The Grizzlies set two new school-records at the Regis Invitational/RMAC #3 as they posted a team score of 332 in Tuesday's second round and a team score of 671 for the tournament. The 332 is the best single round score in program history, surpassing the former mark of 333, set earlier this year at the Grizzly Invitational/RMAC #1, which ASC hosted. The tournament score was a 2-day improvement over the previous best of 673 set at the 2008 Regis Invitational, also played at Fox Hollow. Four of the Grizzlies' best six all-time single round team scores have been recorded at Fox Hollow. Redshirt freshman Samantha Hall posted back-to-back 81's at the Regis Invitational/RMAC #3. Those two scores were the best of her young career and allowed her to finish with a 2-day score of 162, a six shot improvement over her previous career-best. She tied for 14th place, her best career finish. Hall has led the Grizzlies in each of the last four rounds and two tournaments and has a stroke average of 86.0. Hall tied for the tournament lead in birdies (5) at the Regis Invitational/RMAC #3. Grizzly junior Kendall Martin still leads the team with her 84.1 stroke average. Grizzly sophomore Kaylee Moore posted a 2-day score of 167, the best in her career. Grizzly junior Codi Hegg matched her season and career-best low round as she fired an 84 to aid the Grizzlies' record setting day on Tuesday. Hegg also finished the tournament with a season-best score of 175. As a team, the Grizzlies are averaging a team score of 345.8, a big 6.3 shot improvement over the current single-season school record of 352.1, set last year. CSU-Pueblo - Kelly Meldrum (Gunnison, Colo.) bested her top collegiate tournament score by 12 strokes as CSU-Pueblo turned in its best team score in school history (689). Meldrum, who tied for 14th with a score of 162 at the RMAC Event #3 hosted by Regis, entered the tournament with a 2009 stroke average of 96.8 before averaging 81 at Regis.
